EFFECTIVE: 05/31/2024

Right of Access and Source Inspection

Alliant Techsystems/ABL source engineer will be established at the supplier's facility. Source engineering approval of articles is required prior to shipment. The contractor shall contact Alliant/ABL prior to the start of fabrication so that mandatory inprocess inspection/test points can be agreed upon. Source approval will not be given until all inspection records, test data, and shipping documents are completed. The supplier shall contact alliant Techsystems/ABL procurement division for instruction if the source engineer is not available to approve shipments. Source approval for shipment does not constitute acceptance. Final acceptance inspection will be upon receipt by alliant Techsystems/ABL.
